—E. R. Meader of Hardwick arrived here Monday with the three legged calf and this animal curiosity is now on exhibition in the Avenue House block. The admission to the room is ten cents, children five cents, and ladies are especially invited to see the greatest living curiosity on Thursday.

—The July edition of the official directory of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company has been distributed to the subscribers in the St. Johnsbury exchange. A careful reading of the regulations and suggestions contained on pages 303-307 will prove helpful to subscribers and greatly facilitate operations at the central office.

Reception to Bishop Parker.

On Thursday afternoon and evening a reception will be accorded to Bishop E. W. Parker, D. D., missionary bishop for India, of the Methodist church, and his wife in Grace church. From four to six o'clock the clergy of the town and of neighboring towns will meet the bishop in the chapel in an informal way, and with their wives will be served with supper by the ladies of the church. In the evening at 7:30 a public meeting will be held in the church at which short addresses will be given by the bishop and others, after which the bishop and wife assisted by Presiding Elder Sherburn and wife will receive in the chapel.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to the evening meeting and reception. The Bishop and wife have given 41 years to the cause of missions in India, and will soon return to assume heavier burdens than any they have yet borne. No doubt the public will esteem it a privilege to honor their honored servants in this their native town.

School Notes.

The school directors have nearly completed their selection of teachers for the coming year and we give below the corps as far as selected:

Summer street schools, first grade, Mrs. Lydia Beck; second, Miss Martha A. Farmer; third, Miss Eva L. Wilde; fourth, Miss Susie B. Hume; fifth, Miss Bertha S. Hicks; sixth, Miss Lucy M. Sinclair; seventh, Miss Martha A. Jenness; eighth, Mrs. Laura K. Hazen. Assistants, Miss Caroline S. Woodruff, Miss Lena Pike.

Summersville schools, first grade, Miss Anna Batchelder; second and third, Miss Ethel M. Aldrich; fourth and fifth, Miss Ella M. Wright; sixth and seventh, Miss Grace M. Dana; eighth and ninth, Miss Lillian G. Seale.

Maple street, first grade, Miss Ella L. Wilmarth; second and third, Miss Beatrice May.

Paddock village, Miss Edith J. Chamberlin.

Fairbanks village, Miss Anna M. Stevens.

Clay Hill, Miss Mattie Hunt.

St. Johnsbury Centre, primary, Miss Mary Adams; upper grades, Miss Helen M. Albee.

East St. Johnsbury, Miss Susan S. Atkins and Miss Abbie Smith.

Four Corners, Miss Kate D. Peck.

Pierce's Mills, Miss Grace Griswold.

Teacher of Music and Drawing, Miss Ethel M. Nichols.

No teachers have been selected yet for the ninth grade of the Summer street schools, to succeed Miss Newell, resigned, or the school at Goss Hollow. It will be seen from the above that two new schools are to be opened next fall, one in Summersville and another on Maple street. The instruction in drawing and music is also combined in one teacher.

Missionary Addresses.

Luther D. Wishard, of New York, who is engaged in the "forward movement" of missions in the Congregational denomination, spoke at the South church Sunday morning on the cause of missions, both home and foreign. Mr. Wishard gave a remarkably strong address and as a result of his visit the gifts for missions in this church will be increased at least 50 per cent. the coming year. The church is also planning to support one or two missionaries in the home or foreign field.

In the evening Mr. Wishard addressed both congregations at the North church. He traced in his eloquent way the history of the student volunteer movement from the meeting under the haystack at Williamstown, Mass., in 1806 to the present time. He said 1600 student volunteers were now in the field and 3000 more were waiting to go.

In closing Mr. Wishard spoke briefly on the situation in China. He said that the Chinese had been greatly underestimated by the rest of the world. They were law-abiding, as witness the long history of their empire. They possessed indomitable courage and were the shrewdest business men of the Orient.

When converted they made excellent Christians, and after the present clouds had lifted he expected to see a great awakening in China.

As a result of his address at the North church it is expected that money will be raised by the church to support one or more missionaries in the field.

Mr. Wishard was accompanied on his trip to St. Johnsbury by George L. Marsh, a graduate of Grinnell College, who is a student in the Chicago Theological Seminary. Mr. Marsh addressed the young people of both the Congregational churches on Sunday and also spoke in the Sunday schools. He is one of the student volunteers and is interesting young people in missions and starting educational classes wherever he goes. Mr. Marsh comes from good missionary stock, being born in Bulgaria, and has made a very pleasant impression on the people of this town.

Vermont Botanical Club.

The semi-annual meeting of the Vermont Botanical Club was held at Wiloughby Lake July 11 and 12. More than twenty were present, including such well known botanists as President Brainerd of Middlebury College, Professor Jones of the University of Vermont, W. W. Eggleston of Rutland, and others. In spite of occasional showers collecting trips were made to the top of the mountain, to the famous "Garden of Eden" at the foot of the cliff, and to several interesting bogs, where semi-aquatic plants were to be looked for. Inasmuch as this region has been thoroughly explored many times by famous botanists, there were few new species to be found, but those alpine plants for which Wiloughby is botanically famous were nearly all discovered, including Saxifraga aizoides, Saxifraga oppositifolia, Draba incana, Braya humilis, Primula, Mistletoe, Woodsia alpina, Woodsia glabella, etc., and many rare sedges and grasses. Altogether the trip was pronounced one of the most successful the club has ever had.

Excursions to the Shrine.

Nearly 1700 people passed through here Monday from Massachusetts and southern New Hampshire en route to the shrine of St. Anne de Beaupre near Quebec. There were 52 carloads of tourists and they came in five special trains. Four of the trains left St. Johnsbury with two engines. The trains arrived during the hours of three and five in the afternoon and coming at the busiest time in the day made hustling times or the railroad boys.

RECENT DEATHS.

Roberts.

E. F. Roberts died taking an anesthetic on Saturday afternoon, just previous to an operation. Mr. Roberts was born in Strafford about 45 years ago and later lived in Lebanon about five years. He married for his first wife Ida Alexandria, with whom he lived nine years.

After coming to St. Johnsbury he was in the employ of C. A. Calderwood for about ten years when he went into business for himself, where he remained four years.

He married for his second wife Alice Folsom, who with one child, Myrtle B. survives him. Since then he has been employed by Jones & Shields and at Fairbanks shops at which latter place he was employed at the time of his death.

Mr. Roberts was Past Dictator in the Knights of Honor, which is the highest rank attainable, and was also a member of the J. O. U. A. M. Five years ago he joined the North Congregational church, of which he has since been a consistent member. He was also one of the membership committee of the Y. M. C. A., in which he was greatly interested. He was a man of a very quiet disposition but one who did much good in his quiet way. He was always a pleasant and indulgent husband and father, and had a cheerful word for all his associates.

The funeral was held at the house Monday afternoon, Rev. E. M. Chapman officiating, assisted by Rev. A. C. Hussey. Many beautiful flowers were contributed by his shopmates and the orders of which he was a member. The bearers were S. S. Emerson, A. E. Emery, H. A. Quimby and H. C. Hill.

Those from out of town to attend the funeral were: Alvah Roberts and Mrs. Jennie Hutchins of Lebanon, N. H.; Fred H. Folsom of Chelsea, Vt., and John Folsom and wife of Lyndonville.

At a special called meeting of Gen. Logan Council No. 22, J. O. U. A. M., which was held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock to make arrangements for the funeral of their deceased brother, E. F. Roberts, the following resolutions were offered:

Whereas it has pleased our Heavenly Father in his infinite wisdom to sever from this Council to the great Council above, our beloved and esteemed brother, E. F. Roberts, therefore,

Resolved, that it seems fitting that this Council should spread upon its records in his memory, a memento of loving regard in his honor for his faithful service as a member of the J. O. U. A. M.; for his pleasant smile, cheerful countenance and cordial manner with which he always greeted his brothers and friends; for his faithful words and example in his fraternal life. But while we shall miss him, we cannot mourn believing our loss is his eternal gain.

Resolved, that the members of Gen. Logan Council, No. 22, J. O. U. A. M., do deeply sympathize with the afflicted family in the loss of an affectionate husband and father, and commend them for consolation to Him who has said, "cast your care upon me, who careth for you."

Resolved, that the charter shall be draped in his memory for 30 days and that these resolutions be printed in the local papers, a copy sent to the bereaved family and also spread upon the records of the Council.

Douglas.

Chas. Douglas, who lived in West Concord until about a year ago, when he moved to St. Johnsbury, died at his home here last Saturday morning, at the age of 44 years. He had lived on the Dr. Wheeler farm at West Concord several years, but his health failing he sold it last summer to his brother, and hoped with less work and care he might improve, but his health did not return. He has been most tenderly cared for by his devoted wife, to whom he had been married 17 years and upon whom this blow falls most heavily. He leaves also three daughters, two sisters, six brothers and a father and mother. He was a kind and indulgent husband and father, and a loving friend and neighbor. The funeral was held at the house Monday, Rev. Mr. Knapp of Iraburg, a former pastor at West Concord, officiating. The burial was at Grove cemetery, East St. Johnsbury.

Normal Training School.

The Caledonia County Normal Training School opens at the Summer street school building Monday afternoon, continuing two weeks, under the management of W. H. Taylor of Hardwick.

The instructors for the first week are Hon. C. C. Rounds of Washington, D. C., ex-principal of Plymouth Normal School who will conduct the courses in development of character, teaching of English, the making of the teacher and the country school; Hon. Henry Houch, of Harrisburg, Pa., Deputy State Supt. of Education, who will have charge of the following: Orthography, reading, mental arithmetic, educational fads, the teacher's outfit, inspired teaching and pedagogy; Principal Walter E. Ranger of Johnson, Vt., Principal State Normal School, conducting classes in principles of education, school government and moral training; Supt. Francis A. Baginall, of St. Albans, superintendent of city schools, who will conduct the United States history classes.

Instructors during the second week are to be Supt. A. W. Edson of New York, associate superintendent of schools in New York City and formerly Principal of Randolph Normal school, who will give instruction in school management, arithmetic and reading; Supt. Alfred Turner of Turners Falls, Mass., superintendent of city schools, instructor in penmanship, geography and nature study; Miss Elizabeth Allen of Johnson, principal of Training school, who will give instruction in reading and number work, and Miss Ella Herrick of Burlington, supervisor of drawing, who will give an illustrated course of study in drawing.

During the two weeks lectures and entertainments will be provided, and receptions tendered by the townspeople which will be announced in next week's CALEDONIAN. The work will be made thoroughly practical and helpful and it is hoped will be the most successful summer school ever held here.

Church Notes.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Odd Fellows block. Morning service at 10:45, subject, "Love." Wednesday evening meeting at 7:30. The reading-room is open Wednesday and Thursday from 2 to 5.

Next Sunday the morning service at Grace Methodist church will be in the interests of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. Bishop Parker will preach the sermon. In the evening there will be a gospel prayer and praise service.

At the Free Baptist church the pastor's subject next Sunday will be, "Two conditions of progress," and in the evening, "Pilgrim and Giant Despair."

The subject of discourse at the First Baptist church next Sunday morning will be, "The Christ of God," and in the evening "Cross-bearing the condition of crown-wearing."

At the North church the topic for next Sunday evening will be "The Power of an Endless Life." It is expected that during Mr. Chapman's absence on the first three Sundays of August the North church pulpit will be supplied by the Rev. J. G. Johnson, D. D., formerly of the New England church of Chicago, and now of Farmington, Conn. Dr. Johnson plans to spend the greater part of August in St. Johnsbury, where his previous visits have made many friends.

The monthly missionary meeting at the North church last Wednesday evening was in charge of Mrs. Robert MacKinnon, who had prepared an attractive program on the work among the Cubans. A short historical sketch was given by Arthur P. Stone, followed by a description of the work among the Cubans in New York by Mrs. Charles P. Carpenter, who described a recent visit to the school there. Frank H. Brooks told of what Rollins College was doing for the Cubans, and Mrs. George H. Cross closed with impressions of her recent visit to the island.

Two Base Ball Victories.

The first home game of the St. Johnsbury team was played last Wednesday afternoon and was attended by a good crowd of spectators. The boys faced the Bartons and easily outplayed them at every point. The game abounded in heavy hitting on the part of the home team, four of our boys securing home runs. Following is the detailed score:
